

The power of the Divine lives in all things

All of Life dreams the dreams of Creation.

All energy of Creation comes from the Stars and will return to them.

Wisdom comes from the Stars – take some time and listen to the Star Nation.

The crystals are the Earths connection to the messages of the stars.

The Tree of Life receives its energy from the Sun. The Tree of Life feeds all of Life.

A Sundancer is always dancing to the Tree of Life – they see the Tree everywhere.

It is now a time, in which communities based on spiritual principals will be fed, nurtured by Life and travel strongly together.

Use the gift of your life to your higher purpose.

Our Universe is continually re-creating itself.

The universe is providing us energy sources from many dimensions.

Even in times of stillness and quiet, the activity of life never dies.

When confronted by difficulties, keep looking for new possibilities. They are there to be found.

The Wakan lives at the center of the Tree of Life, and in your connection with it, all of life and your Spirit will blossom.

The Sacred Feminine must not be confined nor altered. It flows naturally through all of Life.

The deep inherent wisdom of the Sacred Feminine calls for a cultural sanctuary where doorways of initiation are honored and sacred women's ways are embraced.

It is time to shift anger, and shift what no longer serves you. Playfully lighten and rebalance with the Sacred Feminine.

The healing needed in the humans about sexuality needs to begin with the Women.

There is healing in the emanations of Mother Earth.

The Sacred Ancient Grandmothers are present with us. Open yourself to receive the comfort of the Grandmothers.

The Indigenous Grandmothers see the gifts that each Sacred Human carries and encourages us to bless the Earth with these gifts.

The young ones will become the old ones. Share with them the teachings.

Trust and nurture the living power of the young ... young humans, animals, ideas, innovations, and our new, young dreams of a new life on our planet.

Train the children to be adaptable and cunning. Let their natural curiosity lead them to the deeper wisdoms now needed on our planet.

The grandmothers need to protect the children.

The cries of our young are calling for what is needed. Listen deeply to them.

The young ones are seeking the bread of life, wisdom and tradition lives on. Feed their hunger for the ancient wisdoms.

Pray for the Forgotten Children. – including the Teens.

When seeking resolution, remember to connect to the Earth and its creatures.

A good spiritual practice is; plant the seeds of your calling in the world. Tend them and nurture them. Shape them as they grow to feed life.

Look to the direction of your dreams to see what Sacredness must be built.

Go to the Mother to access your will and it will change your Life more than you can imagine.

To experience freedom, connect to the Mother Earth and walk in balance.

Mother Earth provides the sweet water of life for the People.

We honor all of Life in the enactments of the old ceremonies. Love comes to us from the higher realms as we walk the Kiva Dream trail.

Come to ceremony and learn and know self-love and the love that permeates our universe.

Some time soon, the tradition of Kiva dreaming will become a worldwide tradition.

It is important for everyone, at all stages of their Life, to listen to their Dreams.

If you want to change the way you think, first change the way you dream.

You are supported in all that you dream.

The children are now called here through Spirit, and you must trust that they are connected to one another by deeper purposes. Trust the old ways. Trust that they will fit in the new days.

Notice your own level of domestication – and your relentless sense of dissatisfaction – never enough. Return to Nature and your true balance and all resource needed to sustain all life will be again present.

Stay calm and in command in murky waters, even when you don't know where you are going and what you may encounter.

Speak to the trees and gather the wisdom through the breath.

Have hope, trust what is unconscious will become conscious all in good time.

Caring for the ordinary things in life is a sacred act.

Strengthen what is vulnerable in your life.

Once created, beauty multiples itself in many forms.

Join fully with those humans who delight you and help you grow! Let the past go.

Trust that no matter what – Life knows how to continue itself.

Every little act of loving kindness counts.

Every well intended effort counts. Do not judge against yourself.

There is a time to create order in your Life. There is also a time to create beauty – simply for beauty's sake.

Even Angels play! Be joy-filled in your Life.

As you quest in your Life, trust in Mother Earth to create your safe passage. On the river of Spirit, the MotherEarth's children will always be with you.

Every idea we receive is a seed of Creation. When we accept an idea, we also accept the responsibility to grow it to maturity.

In your quiet, all knowledge becomes accessible and is revealed through the breath.

Love inhales and love exhales and grows with each breath when we are conscious of the love that lives within ourselves.

You can choose to live life leading from the smaller ego needs - or you can choose to be guided by Spirit.

The animals are aware that we are all One.

Look to the winged ones for the gift they have for you.

Carry the magic of Dreaming, into the country of Thought.

The Ancestor Spirits are close at hand to accompany us supporting and praying for us. Their support and love is more enormous than imagined.

We stand on the shoulders of our ancestors to find what is needed to grow ourselves as Sacred Humans.

Walk nobly, because you are walking on the bones of your ancestors.

A death honored, brings peace.

Do not be afraid of what one thinks is 'lost'. Stay present with all of Life. In your gentle nature, stay in deep appreciation of this present moment to see that nothing is lost.

Get close to the words of the elders to find the wisdom of the ages.

Our Teachers & Spirit Guides are always with us.

It is the gift of women to teach men about pleasure in a balanced way.

*Sometimes the powerful decisions require us to risk something of ourselves.
Yield, and risk. Find the power in standing in the risk.*

When people plant the seeds of peace, peace grows.

Hold sacred the natural cycles of Life.

Be alert for what you may idolize.

The magic of the old way is in the Now. Sentimentality of the past, and glamour of the future, do not hold the Now.

Do not be imprisoned by an outside authority's ideas of what is appropriate for what lives inside of you!

Recognize when you are being 'programmed' by society around you. Return to your true way of perceiving life.

Your medicine lives inside of you. It cannot be taken away by anything or anyone.

Be willing to go where your spirit leads you.

Remember your sacred masculine and feminine as you grow your light and as you dream.

Speak of what is truly important in these days.

The vision of your life rises out of the dream of your life.

The people's government is guided by old wisdom and strength. Look past this day's politics for the inspiration and truth that still lives beneath.

Transformation in the government structure is at hand. Fear is our enemy. Stay present and do not let fear guide you.

The integrity of our politics is equal to the integrity of we the People.

To live fully into the Sacred feminine, Women must create a marriage of their Masculine and their Feminine aspects ... two feathers become one. Men need to play an important role in this healing.

Remember the old ways of initiation for the Humans.

Feed the wisdom of the old ones that already lives in the children.

Be All That You Are.

Know your life is unfolding like a beautiful painting of which you are the artist. It is always in progress.

Harvesting your dreams will bring you abundance and joy.

Listen to the voice of your Higher Self, and notice what is needed to balance your Life.

See the journey of your Life as an artistic expression of Creation.

Go with what is – with what and who you are!

Assistance in your 'reshaping' in these times is happening at all levels with much help from the higher realms.

It will feel like the darkness is growing in our world. Remember that the light in all things has been being nurtured, grown, and stored in all of life for just these times. Trust this truth.

We walk fully in our individuality when we walk fully in our communal hearts.

The gifts of all the people create balance and beauty in the world.

There are many layers to our reality. Gather all Cultures together to find the large design.

If we listen, our bodies have sensory doorways to all things.

Find the magic of Life through shared intention. This magic must be shared to bring balance and wholeness.

What we see is all a matter of perspective. Know how to shift from one to another, to see a larger and more wholistic view.

The initiation is an act of becoming. Transformation is timeless.

Sometimes we must 'lose' things, to make room for the new and bigger reality.

What appears to be dissatisfying to you is the doorway to your peace.

The magic of life is: that new life always comes from life.

What can appear as 'deformed' can simply be evolution. Do not be afraid of change.

Our hearts knowing will shift and change what is needed in many ways. In these right actions the Spirit of Life Light will grow on our planet.

As you journey in life, play wildly, ask powerful questions and learn to trust your intuition.

Healing can occur when the ceremonial fires of Transformation and Unity emerge.

Look deeper. The spirit of a man (or woman) may not be as obvious as the clothes they are wearing. Remove the obstacles to opening your sexuality.

Asking powerful questions opens the door to transformation.

Don't take yourself too seriously, laugh often.

Out of the pure darkness of the Dream, comes the pure light of Life.
